Valley City

We regret to chronicle the death of Mr. Louis Guest, a farmer living about four miles north of town, well-known and well-liked by the whole community. A week ago Friday Mr. Guest was taken to Fairview hospital, Cleveland, to submit to an operation for ulcers of the stomach. After the operation he gave promise of recovering, but a few days later he suffered a relapse and died Tuesday, Nov. 14. He was buried from the Lutheran church, Rev. Prinz officiating. Mr. Guest was but 47 years of age and leaves a wife and five children.

Mrs. Stebel has returned home after an extended visit with her daughter in Columbus and with her brother, C. O. Wells, in Edison, O. Welcome to our city.

Mr. Sam McMullen, temporarily of Cleveland, was a visitor at the home of Miss Stella Yost last Sunday.

With anguish of heart we must chalk down another defeat for our stalwart foot ball warriors. This time it was administered by the aggregation from Le Grange, who rolled up a score of 35 to our lonely 6 last Friday. We console ourselves with the fact that although the opponents showed greater familiarity with the game, our boys showed a heap of fight and a lot of grit—and that's the raw material that great foot ball teams are made of. Sure we are still proud of our team. Give 'em time, give 'em time—they have the "makins'!" On Thanksgiving Day they clash with La Grange once more at La Grange. Go get 'em, fellers!

What's our peaceful little town coming to? Last Sunday morning about 5 o'clock a group of detectives swooped down upon the sleeping villagers with all the majesty of the law—they were on the trail of the burglars who had been plying their trade in Berea Saturday night—someone had 'sicked' them onto Valley City. Of course it was a cold trail; burglars may pass through here, but they do not linger—we do not grow that type of men here.

Valley City was well represented at the State Clubs, Boys' and Girls' Week at Columbus. Rupert Otterbacher and Erdine Fuder as first prize winners at the Medina county fair and Leah Pohzell as the winner of the highest points in the local club, attended the affair and report a great time. They are helping to put Valley City on the map.

The high school girls put over their bazaar last Friday night in grand style. The old town hall under their witchery was transformed into a "fairy-bower" and the articles they displayed for sale just naturally coaxed the nickles, dimes and dollars out of one's pocket. They realized about $50.00 from this venture.

Rabbits and coons are having a sorry time of it in this town. Last Thursday night about 20 rabbits were sacrificed to prepare a big "Hasen-Pfeffer" supper at the Bidingmeyer establishment, and at the Beit's cafeteria a coon-fry coaxed the hungry swarms.

Mr. R. Virtue and Mr. H. W. Harshfield, both Ohio State rosters, went to Columbus Saturday to see their team "cop off" the big championship. We are sorry they were disappointed in the results, but cheer up, we are all with you in the belief that Ohio State has the best team in spite of Saturday's score.

Herman Roth, a former resident of this metropolis but now a student at Ohio State, visited at the Stebel home the early part of this week.

Mrs. Bert Schroeder apparently hasn't forgotten the rich flavor of home-cooking in spite of her long residence in Canton. She is to eat duck at her mother's table on Thanksgiving Day. The home-table seems to be luring Mr. Ray Frisk also—he is to spend Thanksgiving at his home in Toledo, but we hope to see him back within a few days.

For your own good, we advise you to be sure and take in the bazaar to be given next Friday evening, Nov. 25 at the town hall by the Ladies' Aid society of the Valley City church. The ladies have long prepared for same and we venture the prediction that it will be a "hum-dinger." Do your Christmas shopping early and enjoy yourself while so doing at this bazaar.

The Auto contest at the Valley City Sunday school is well under way. The Dodge car is leading the race with a good margin, the Oldsmobile is in second place and the Overland third, but the Ford isn't out of the race by any means as yet. Watch them line up next Sunday morning!

In the death of old Grandmother Law last Wednesday night, perhaps the oldest settler in this county passed away. She came into this neighborhood as a toddling babe with her parents about 88 years ago. They made their home here in a trackless forest. She was born in Wittenberg, Germany, Aug. 20, 1830. When three years of age, her father, Thomas Landenberger, undertook the hazards of the long ocean voyage to America—it is recorded that the journey from Germany to New York required a period of 91 days. From New York they traveled to Canton, Ohio, but remained there but a short time and then penetrated the wilderness to settle finally in Liverpool township. Here she has lived ever since.

In 1848 she was married to Jacob Law and to them were born 10 children:—John Law, Mrs. Mary Wise, Henry Law, Mrs. Katherine Wise, Carrie Law, August Law, Jacob Law, Louise Law, William Law and Joseph Law. Grandmother Law, as she is known throughout the county, died suddenly and unexpectedly last Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Katherine Wise, at the ripe old age of 91 years. Throughout her long life she was never known to be seriously ill and she retained her health and rugged strength to the very last. Funeral services were held at the Valley City church Monday morning, Rev. H. J. Hahn officiating, attended by a large concourse of relatives and friends. She leaves 6 children, 39 grandchildren, 58 great-grandchildren and 4 great-great-grandchildren, also two younger sisters.

Mr. and Mrs. Clark have the sympathy of the people of Seville in losing their beautiful little babe and only son.

They would not tell the correspondent just how many they did get, but we know they scared one anyway. They were entertained at dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Swagler, sister of Mrs. Johnson. Come again; better luck maybe.

Mr. Ed. Steele will start for Florida some time this week.

A closed mail pouch leaves Seville for Cleveland over the Southwestern electric line on the 5:55 p. m. car every day.

The union Thanksgiving services at the Baptist church last Sabbath evening were of an unusually interesting character. The pulpit was occupied by Rev. Woolfe, pastor of the Presbyterian church. Rev. Bonhart, pastor of the M. E. church and speaker of the evening, and Rev. Smith, who may well be called the "assistant pastor" of the three churches. The auditorium was filled with people, while the overflow completely filled the vestry. The audience was a great inspiration and in responsive service, both in Scripture reading and song, gave cordial support to the speaker, who preached a sermon some what out of the ordinary. His "triangle of thankfulness" could not help but impress his hearers. Thankfulness of faith, of hope, of service, ought to impel every one to give of his aid to the Master. Miss Elizabeth Kinneman of E. Aurora, N. Y., sang very delightfully "My Father Watches Over Me," and many were thankful for the privilege of hearing her again in her home church. The organ and Mrs. Don Crawford, were at their best, as she played "Jerusalem the Golden," with Miss Bell in the voice part, as the opening voluntary. The choir was a happy surprise in such splendid leading in the congregation at singing, as well as in the two anthems sung. Mrs. Crawford chose for her postlude number Gounod's "March Triumphant," a very fitting closing for such a fine program.

The regular prayer meeting will be held as usual Thursday evening at 7 o'clock. Sunday services: preaching at 10:30 a. m. and 7 p. m., S. # Blue Monday or Sunny Monday

A HAPPY AND CHEERFUL ONE

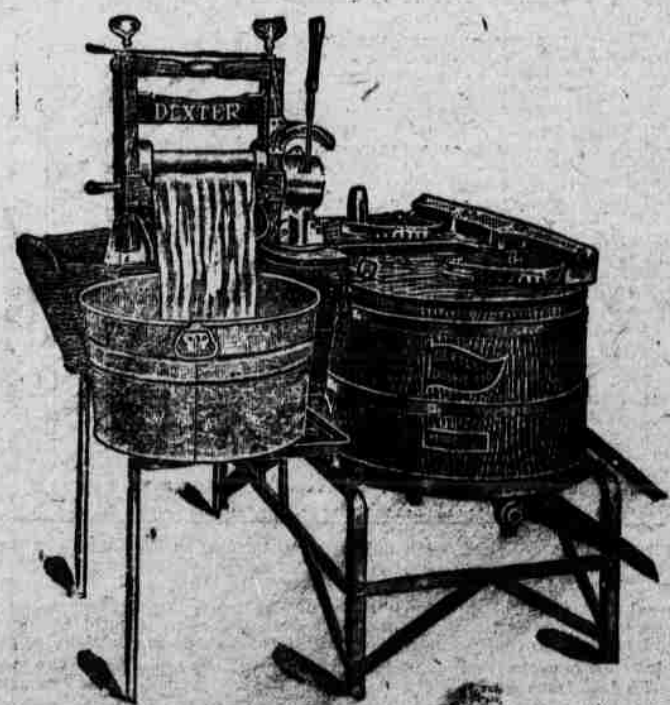

Of all the tasks that are supposed to belong to woman, the family washing is the hardest and most disagreeable. It has ruined health, delicate hands and disposition.

If you are sending your washing out, you are paying for a GOOD ELECTRIC or POWER MACHINE every year and are getting inferior work done.

If you are having friend wife to do the family washing by hand you are forcing an unnecessary burden and hardship on her.

If you had the Washing to do and do by hand, Mister Man, you would have a Memac Electric or a Dexter Double Tub Power Machine before your first job was done.

Think about this for CHRISTMAS and start 1921 right.
